2. "Repetition" means not repeating a particular idea or concept.
3. "Hesitation" will be weighed very strictly; even a momentary pause can give rise to a successful challenge, as can be in case of tripping over one's words. Even pausing during audience laughter can give rise to a challenge.
4. "Deviation" means basically deviating from the subject and sometimes deviating from universal truths or logic.
5. Importance will be given to grammatical errors, fumbling, stammering and pronunciation and marks will be awarded accordingly.
6. A participant scores a point for making a correct challenge against whoever is speaking, whilst the speaker gets a point if the challenge is deemed incorrect.
7. A participant who makes a correct challenge takes over the subject for the remainder of the minute, or more likely, until he/she is correctly challenged within the rules of the event.
